This bursary is designed to afford an opportunity to one (1) Snowboard Athlete who is a child of a member in good standing of the Beaver Valley Ski Club, to advance their knowledge and studies. The recipient will receive $1,000 in bursary money.

I wish to apply for Zsolt Bursary as I qualify based on the criteria listed below:

- A child of a member who is in good standing with the Club,
- A graduating student from a secondary school,
- Proof of Admission/Registration into a post-secondary institution,
- Meet the admission standards of the college/university they are attending,
- An individual who competes (or has competed) in Snowboarding and is continuing to improve their discipline; continues to be dedicated to the sport of snowboarding,
- An individual who, while competing, is enthusiastic & upholds the vision of Beaver Valley Ski Club.

Additional to the application, the candidate must submit:

- One letter of reference from their current school (on official school letterhead)
- One letter of reference from their coach
- One letter from the candidate referencing a list of accomplishments & future goals in both areas of snowboarding and education
- Most current copy of their official School transcript & current class marks
